

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

To Whom It May Concern:

.....is working with Deborah Spagnoletti as an educational consultant and I/We would welcome a sharing of information regarding any academic concerns, college/independent school selections, and in general an open relationship that would benefit the student.

I/We hereby authorize Ms. Spagnoletti to discuss test scores of any nature, grades, teachers' comments as well as issues of more personal nature from physicians, psychologists, or therapists that might be helpful in the school selection process.

Once the student has enrolled in a new school this release authorize grade reports, comments, and test reports to be sent to Ms. Spagnoletti as well.

It is understood that these reports or discussions will be used only in the furtherance of determining current and future academic plans for the above student. Such information will remain confidential and shall be used in a manner to insure the protection and safeguarding of all rights provided by law otherwise.

This authorization shall remain in effect until the student has matriculated in another school or until revoked by me in writing. A photocopy of this authorization shall be as valid as the original.

Sincerely,

.....
(Parent or student if over 18)

.....
(Date)